

WAS A VERY SPECIAL YEAR!

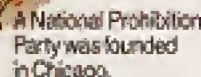

The Union Pacific and Central Pacific
Railroads joined at Promontory Point,
Utah Territory.

The A&P got its name when the Great American Tea Company was renamed the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company.

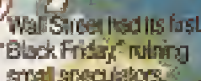

H. J. Heinz Co. was founded in Sharpsburg, Pennsylvania, to produce processed foods such as ketchup.

The American Woman's Suffrage Association was founded by Susan B. Anthony.

An African expedition to find missionary David Livingstone set out under Henry Morton Stanley

Welch's Grape Juice was developed in Vineland, New Jersey, as a temperance substitute for wine.

Campbell Soup Company was founded in Camden, New Jersey, canning soups, tomatoes and vegetables.

And, in 1869, Alexander Vaughan founded the Vaughan Tool Company in Peoria, Illinois. In the 125 years since, through four generations, Vaughan has grown to become the world's largest manufacturer of striking tools. Alexander wouldn't recognize his company today. But he'd be pleased that we've maintained his dedication to quality.

We invite you to write for our catalog.

1869 ★★★★★★★★★★★★

 VAUGHAN

OUR 125TH YEAR 1994

→ "Ecology" was coined to mean environmental balance by German zoology professor Ernst Heinrich Haeckel.

Gypsy moths were brought to America by naturalist Leopold Trounvert, who hoped to start a silk industry.

